

New opportunity to invest in The Glacier Top Brands Return Enhancer

25 June 2024

We're pleased to announce that a new issue of the Glacier Top Brands Return Enhancer is currently open for investment until 2 August 2024.

The Top Brands Return Enhancer has proven to be a popular investment option amongst clients who require certainty, but also enjoy the prospect of receiving an enhanced return if markets are favourable. No less than R312m was invested in the previous issue.

This new issue also presents a possible investment opportunity for clients whose Glacier Capital Enhancer matured on 14 June, who can commit to another five-year investment term.

Return profile

The return of this structured product – which is a five-year investment option in a sinking fund policy – is linked to the performance of a global portfolio of companies with strong brand value.

The investor has exposure to the Bloomberg Transatlantic Top Brands Fixed Selection Decrement 5% Index, referred to as “the global portfolio”.

A minimum return and the possibility of an enhanced return if investment is held to maturity

PORTFOLIO RETURN OVER FIVE YEARS

Up to and including 30%:

Greater than 30%:

RETURN AT MATURITY (BEFORE TAX) BASED ON INDICATED ENHANCED LEVEL

Minimum return of 30% on initial investment amount

Enhanced return of 70% on initial investment amount

Important to note: The returns indicated above are before tax. The indicative enhanced return is priced at a certain point in time and is sensitive to factors such as interest rate changes, exchange rates and volatility in equity markets. Any marked changes in these pricing inputs from launch date to trade date will result in a difference between the enhanced return level indicated and the final enhanced return level at trade date. However, we aim to secure an attractive enhanced return level that does not differ materially from the indicative level. Final levels will be confirmed at inception date.

The quote and application forms are available on the Glacier intermediary web.
